Monday , August 28, 2023	Enter Exhibits	Noon to 8:00 pm
Tuesday , August 29, 2023	Enter Exhibits	Noon to 8:00 pm

Pick up Entries

Sunday, September 10, 2023 9:00am – 1:00 pm

Special Rules

- All entries are subject to the General Rules & Regulations of the Creative Arts Division as published herein. PLEASE READ CAREFULLY.
- Dolls must be registered to be exhibited. No exceptions.
- Dolls MUST be on stands. Baby dolls may lie on a pillow or blanket. Fair does not supply stands, pillows or blankets. These items should accompany your doll at the time of entry. No exceptions.
- Items which have received awards of First Place (or higher) in the Doll Division will not be allowed to re-enter. No item may be entered more than three (3) times, regardless of awards received.
- Broken, damaged or soiled dolls will not be accepted for competition or exhibition. EXCEPTIONS – ANTIQUES (1800-1960). Please note that although antique dolls and playthings are exceptions to the rule, entries in all Divisions and Classes will show and judge much better if care is given in their presentation, appearance and cleanliness.
- Chairman may re-classify any entry at his/her discretion if it is found to have been entered into the wrong Division, Class, or Category.
- In each division that applies, each entry will be labeled Professional (P) or Hobbyist (H). No teacher may enter as a hobbyist in his/her field.
- Each item is judged individually on its own merits. Dolls and related items are judged by a point system. If an item merits a ribbon, then it gets a ribbon regardless of how many other items win ribbons in that class. If an item does not merit a ribbon, then no ribbons will be awarded, even if it is the only item in that class. Having your handcrafted dolls judged is a good way to award good work, to encourage the desire to achieve improvement and to check on your progress as a skilled doll artist.
